

Name:

Unit 1: Reproductive Hormones
Secondary Sex Characteristics

1. At what time in a person's life do the secondary sex characteristics begin to appear? What age range would this include?
2. In males, what is the hormone responsible for these characteristics?
3. In females, what is the hormone responsible for these characteristics?
4. In each box, describe what changes are taking place for each structure/process?

	Male	Female
Body Hair
Skin
Voice
Muscle strength
Skeleton
Breasts
Fat deposition
Pelvic girdle		